Spring 2017 NEWSLETTER

Greetings

As we approach the penultimate play of this season I thought I'd update you on recent and forthcoming activity at the Little Theatre.

Committee Posts: We recently sent out a plea looking for 'new blood' to come forward and serve in vacant posts on our committee from June. Many thanks to those of you who responded. I am delighted that we now have volunteers to stand at June's AGM for all but one of the vacancies. We are still seeking options for membership secretary, so if you or someone you know could help, please get in touch.

New Directors: The next 2 productions welcome 'first time' Directors to the Rep. Adam Croft, seen on stage many times in recent seasons, directs The Business of Murder. Malcolm Farrar, much experienced in Luton societies, is taking on the July play, The Philadelphia Story. We wish them good luck.

2017/18 Season: Following The Philadelphia Story we have a guest production; Sherlock Holmes, The case of the Whitehall Widower, an original script from ACT. This pre-cursors the first half of the 2017/18 season; Ladies in Lavender, Memory of Water and Wendy & Peter Pan, along with Griffin Players' The Vicar of Dibley. Further details, including audition and performance dates will appear soon in our new What's On.

You can also keep up to date on our website and social media.

All the Best

BAZAAR & RUMMAGE

"Congratulations to the cast and crew of 'Bazaar and Rummage' very funny and the characters were excellent!"

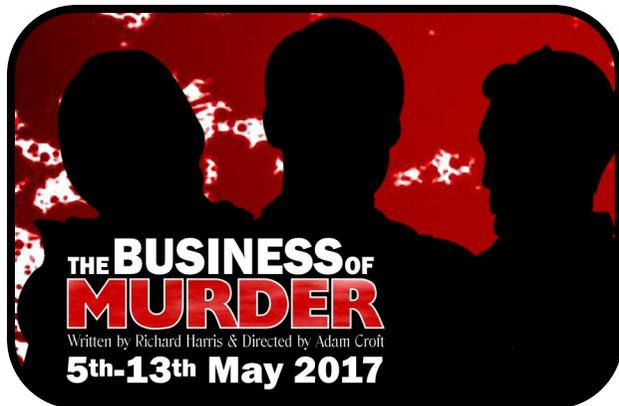

OUR NEXT PRODUCTION

A critical and popular success in the West End, this psychological thriller about revenge centres on the interlocking triangular relationship between Dee, a successful television playwright; Hallett, a detective superintendent; and Stone, a humourless, prissy man.

Dee arrives at Stone's flat, having accepted an invitation to discuss a script by Stone's wife. She is rather surprised when Hallett, with whom she is having an affair, also arrives, apparently to investigate a matter concerning Stone's son and his involvement with a drug ring.

But where are wife and son? After many twists and turns, Stone's intentions become clear as he slowly reveals the precise nature of the trio's relationship: all three are very much concerned with the business of murder...

Staging a play is not just about casting and directing that cast in rehearsals. The play simply cannot be performed unless the vital team 'behind the scenes' or 'front of house' are in place.

If 'treading the boards' is not for you but you have a keen interest in theatre, Dunstable Rep are always looking for people who would like to get involved. either backstage or front of house.
