2017/18 Season

Issue 2

Hello Theatre-goers

I am excited that another season of Rep and visiting productions is now underway at the Little Theatre and, following a superb opening play, Ladies in Lavender and the hilarious Vicar of Dibley from our friends at Griffin Players, I'm looking forward with relish to more high quality local theatre. Whether you are a stalwart member or new to the Rep experience, I am sure you are too. Details inside!

SEASON UPDATE

Unfortunately, we are no longer able to bring you the play Wendy and Peter Pan in this season. Instead we have brought forward the planned 'Jane Eyre' from May 2018 into the January 2018 slot (casting Nov 2nd, for anyone interested). We are looking into an alternative for the vacancy in May 2018, so keep your eyes and ears peeled for the announcement.

Jane Eyre by Willis Hall, directed by Christine Rayment:: Adapted from the Charlotte Bronte classic, the tormented life and redemption of a north-eastern girl is brought to life on stage: January 19th to 27th 2018.

The Memory of Water by Shelagh Stephenson, directed by Alan Clarke: Three sisters reunite the day before their mother's funeral. The relationships between them and their own personal lives are laid bare, and the revelations are both tragic and comic. March 9th to 17th 2018.

Play 5 TBC - May 2018

Perfect Wedding by Robert Hawdon, directed by Adam Croft: A bridegroom wakes on his wedding morning in his own bridal suite, with his bride-to-be about to arrive any moment, and finds a strange girl in bed beside him. July 6th to 14th 2018.
